IN LOVING MEMORY

Emma Jean Fletcher-Scott affectionately, known as “EJ,” 72 of Hyattsville, Maryland, was born on May 9, 1952, to the late Estelle and Samuel Fletcher of Front Royal, Virginia. She passed away on Thursday, February 13, 2025, at Adventist Health Care Medical Center, after a long illness .

EJ attended Warren County High School in Front Royal, Virginia. After graduating from High School, she followed her siblings and moved to Washington, DC. While in DC, she attended Strayer College before joining Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (METRO) as a bus operator, then she became a Supervisor and Desk Clerk, before retiring after more than 30 years of service. In her retirement, she found enjoyment in assisting her community by transporting students to and from school for several years.

Sister EJ joined Crossover Church in October 2012 and was a faithful participant of our weekly Pastor’s Prayer Partners Ministry, which she joined during the pandemic. She was normally the first person to jump on and announce herself each Saturday.

She enjoyed music, dancing and talking with friends. She was a praying woman who was also an avid Washington Redskins/Commanders Fan and was excited they made the playoffs this past season.

EJ leaves to cherish her loving memory:
her son Junis (JT) Fletcher and two grandsons Junis (JJ) Fletcher, Jr., and Jayden Fletcher. She is also survived by her four siblings; Doris Palin, Susie Fletcher, Geneva Fletcher, and Samuel Fletcher and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.
